TURNER

PROLOGUE

The final curtain has fallen, we've taken our bows. The worries of production, casting, and tickets are over and all that remains is the stub—a little piece of paper torn in half.

What significance does it hold? A significance so enduring that it forms a ring upon which the keys of knowledge, hope, and understanding are placed.

These keys possess the power to lift our vision upward and reveal our stairway to the stars.

DEDICATION

To one of our most capable directors. . . . An unlimited supply of patience, plus a wealth of understanding combine to make her not only a fine teacher, but a wonderful friend as well. . . .

With a deep sense of love and gratitude to Mrs. Edna Knapp for her support and guidance, we, the class of 1950, affectionately dedicate this annual.

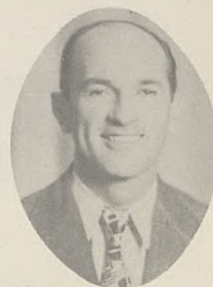

Our Directors have so patiently helped us to solve the problems of production. Carefully planning each scene, they have made our three act drama a Pulitzer Prize Winner.

ACT I

The house lights dim, the curtain opens, and the drama begins. It is our story but we are not the stars, merely the stage hands, preparing for the big moment when we will appear behind the foot lights.

Yes, we each have our assigned duties and know what is to be done, but we are a little unsure of ourselves, for we are only lowly sophomores. We're adjusting our lives to the routine, but often we miss our cues and flounder helplessly among the mass of humanity, clubs, subjects, and jobs which make up high school. We gaze at the seniors in awe, and wonder if we'll ever made the grade. We're lucky though, no "Sophomore Week" much to our delight and the chagrin of our upper classmen.

The election of our class officers, Bobby, Bill, Helen, and John, makes us feel that we really belong. At last, we're on our way!

Football season opens with a bang—Joan and Harriet are right down front, leading us in those long, loud yells for "our Tornadoes". Plant City and Bradenton each beat us by one point, but we bounce back to tromp all over Wauchula, Tarpon, Orlando, and Punta Gorda. Coach Justice's first year, and we're off to better things!

Christmas—formals, parties, and so much fun—especially in "our town".

Our Plays within a play are "Sinister House" and "Loose Moments". Barbara Deulin in the role of Sophie is someone we'll always remember—stars on our own stage, and how they shine!

The first act is drawing to a close, but not before May Day, with that royal couple, Jerry and Roger, reigning over the court. Our own attendants, Sue and Dale, are up there, too.

Closer—closer—closer—final exams are coming. Many dark days and sleepless nights—then at last they're over, much to our relief.

The scene changes; there go the seniors down the aisle, marching to the strains of "Pomp and Circumstance." Don't they look proud as they receive their diplomas? Well, maybe someday . . .

Graduation dance—dreamy music, and Pat Wolff as sophomore sponsor—a credit to Pete's good taste.

A wonderful year is over—we're one step nearer our goal. Keep looking ahead and we'll soon be there.

ACT II

The curtain opens on Act II, to find us upper classmen. We, the understudies, watch from the wings as "the '49ers" perform. Eager to test our "star ability," we know each line perfectly, and yet, we are not impatient because we realize that the second act holds much for us.

With Dale to lead us, assisted by Philip, Bill, and John, we are sure of success, even though our responsibilities are many.

Sophomore Week, and aren't we mean—did you ever smell so much "Blue Waltz" perfume?

Our cheerleaders, led by Captain "Had", really do look snappy. We are mighty proud that Juniors Pat and Sue made the team, to join Joan and Harriet.

What a football season! Before each game we hold our breath, hoping against hope that our winning streak will continue—and it does! Yep, along with the Pinellas County Trophy we capture that all-important title of South Florida Conference Champs! For the first time in the history of CHS we have an undefeated, untied football team. Talk about proud—we are just that!

Along with those superlative football scores, we'll always remember just how lovely Pat and Liz looked as they graced the Homecoming Court.

A reprieve—in the form of Christmas holidays—then back to face mid-year exams. Oh, to be studious!

We manage to stay busy 'cause if it isn't homework, it's one of those swell basketball games, "Tornado style," followed by an after-the-game dance given by one of our many active school clubs.

The juniors are so busy planning a super-duper prom, while the seniors slave over their class play.

At last, here it is—"Aaron Slick from Punkin Crick", starring Cappy Bie. The square dancing really is something to see—and doesn't "Ches" give that one line "his all"!

May 6, brings the Jr.-Sr. Prom. Could it be possible to be more excited than we are: or have more longing expression than the sophomores? "Your time will come," we laughingly tell them as, we set out for the Tampa Terrace.

May Night follows, with Pat and Pete as King and Queen. The court consists of Anne and Kent, Harriet and John, Joan and Bill, Sue and Dale; along with seniors Lois and Gilman, sophomores Sally and Jack.

Graduation festivities, and once more the stars leave the stage as another year is over. Nearer, nearer—we're almost there.

ACT III

A brief intermission, the blare of trumpets, then a hush falls over the theater as the last act unfolds. At long last, we stand behind the footlights, THE STARS OF 1950!

It is our big moment—to savor and remember for as long as we shall live. Yet, along with the glory there is much hard work for each member of the cast. It is our job to publish the "Chatter," the "Aqua Clara," and direct various organizations with efficiency and ease.

Our first decision—the election of Bill as president—is a good one. Aided by Bobby, Betsy, Dale, Kent and "Twinkle," the third act is sure to progress smoothly.

Did you ever see such beautiful class jewelry—or a prouder look than our "stars" wear as they leave the auditorium first? Listen closely, and you'll hear them singing, "Isn't It Great To Be a Senior"—yep, it sure is!

Excitement mounts as football season arrives. The question is, "Will we be able to do it again?" The cheerleaders, with capable Harriet as captain, have added Anne and Jack to their group. Our first game, a win, and each touchdown is a "watery" one. That was some bus trip to Punta Gorda—with Fuller the life of the party!!! Many games and many thrilling scores—St. Pete stops us temporarily with a tie, but with strength and spirit our boys fight on, yard by yard, to claim the Pineallas County and S. F. C. championships for the second successive year. Hats off to our coaches and Tornados!

Cheers, also, to Liz, our beautiful Homecoming Queen, surrounded by lovelies, Harriet, Pat, Anne, and Barbara.

Hurried shopping, gay tinsel, secret smiles, holidays—it all spells Christmas with a capital "C". Was there ever a holiday season with more parties or fun?

Back to the grind of mid-years, and it seems impossible to realize that our "starring roles" have reached the half-way mark. Can you believe it?

Never a dull minute with basketball games each Tuesday and Friday night. Catch a glimpse of Captain Philip dashing by in his new uniform—bet we have the best-dressed team in the state.

The year speeds by. We've almost reached our destination, and suddenly—We wish that we could turn back the calendar—Act III is passing much too swiftly.

Then, before we know it, there we are—marching down the aisle in our caps and gowns—seeing our parent's proud faces, through a blinding mist of tears. Sitting on the stage, we begin to think back and recall the wonderful, happy incidents that have made up our senior year—Pat Neff as "Anita" in "The Ghost Flies South," the applause "A Date With Judy" received, and most of all "Senior Week," including the Prom, Skip Day, and the banquet.

Three years—a long time—and yet so short. Three years—filled with memories that can never be erased. Three years—and now we are alumni.

The play is over. We take our bows amidst stirring applause. The curtain closes; the audience quickly empties the theater. A hushed silence falls. We are sad, but not regretful. Without a backward glance we leave the theater—eyes shining, head erect—walking out to face the future—unafraid.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Here's our government, here's what makes us tick! Our Student Council, which is active all through the year with projects to better ol' C. H. S., is made up of students chosen by you and by me to represent us in the decisions and projects which are continually brought before this governing group.

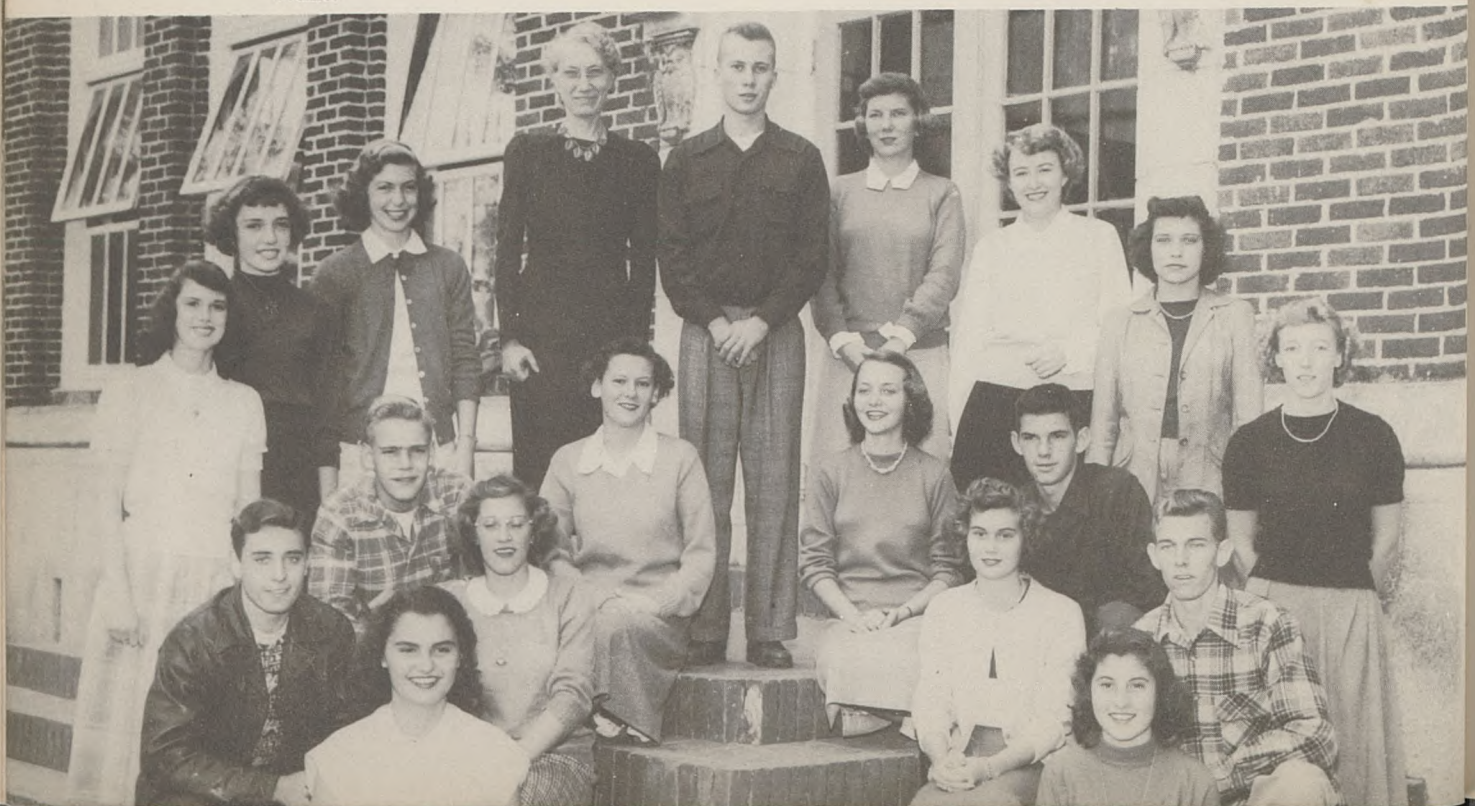

The members of Student Council are chosen for their abilities as leaders, followers, and as fair representatives. For the first time this year, the Council sponsored the C.

H. S. Calendar. And certainly everyone remembers Sophomore Week which Student Council put on for introducing the Sophs to the Upperclassmen and vice versa! Then of course there was the Homecoming Parade and that big bonfire, all sponsored by the hard-working Council! And who could get along without the supplies from the "store" in the front hall? All these and many other things the Student Council did this past year. This ever-striving group is assisted by the able Miss Kelley and Miss Foley.

Meet with your friends, find worthy projects to do, and keep up an interest in what the school is doing—that's what the C-30 Club, that group of thirty energetic girls, does.

Joan Simmons

C-30, organized in 1940 and now led by Miss Amber Turner, has it's purpose: promoting better relations between the students. And do they accomplish this?—Well, they certainly go a long way, by sponsoring those dances which go over with a bang!

HI-TEENS

I'll see you at the "Y", is a familiar phrase around C. H. S.

The girls of C. H. S. have been exceedingly active in this organization. Formed in 1920 as a branch of the Y. W. C. A., it has increased in its importance to the school and community with each coming year.

The charming and capable Misses Ruth Breese and Carol Avery have aided the girls in all their activities.

This club offers membership to any girl enrolled in C. H. S. and welcomes your ingenuity and cooperation.

Everyone's on the "beam" when they belong to the National Honor Society which enables anyone having an average of 85 or more from the ninth grade up, and being outstanding in character, leadership, and service, to become a member. Students are invited to join by formal invitation either at the mid-term or at the end of the year. The midterm initiation is an informal affair, while the one at the end of the year is included in the annual formal banquet held by the club each year at that time.

This organization was started in 1937, and is now under the guidance of Miss Martha Kelley. One of the aims of this club, many of whose members are club officers, is to study parliamentary procedure, and some time out of each meeting is given to phases of this study.

GLEE CLUB

Club spent most of its time learning new songs and forming a mixed and girl's chorus. The Choruses have adopted a merit system which awards at the end of the year, pins or keys.

Out of the whole Glee Club, a girl's trio and a boy's quartet have been chosen. These boys and girls make many appearances at civic and private clubs, and before school assemblies.

The Glee Club has a busy schedule the second semester, performing before many different organizations. Also planned is a Spring Concert and an Operetta.

Among the many songs in the Glee Club's repertoire are: Negro Spirituals, religious pieces, and some popular songs.

Sponsored by the dark haired Senora Mildred Turner, this group has been functioning in C. H. S. since 1937. The home meetings are conducted in Spanish and tend to create a better understanding between us and our neighbors "South of the Border."

Rewards are given out such as a merit certificate, an operator's license, personal gifts, and best of all, vocational training.

The Future Homemakers of America was organized in November 1944. The purpose is to further interest in home-making. Girls who have had or are taking one year of home-making may belong to the F.H.A., which has chapters in 46 states, Puerto Rico, and Hawaii. In 1948, there were 6,108 chapters and 237,133 members. A national program of work is developed annually at the national convention.

MASQUE AND GAVEL

Masque and Gavel, the so-called dramatics club of C. H. S., has as its goal recognizing the speech abilities and accomplishments of the students. An average of 85 is required for membership, as well as participation in speech activities in the community.

This club, established in 1937, has given two plays in the last three years, the proceeds of which have gone into the purchase of school equipment. As you all remember, the play given by this energetic club during this past year was that hilarious comedy, "The Ghost Flies South". The proceeds from this play went into the purchase of stage properties and equipment, which were sorely needed.

Then hail to the Crimson and Grey,

The Crimson and the Grey.

OUR COACHES

The Clearwater High School coaching staff, the best in Florida, to C. H. S. 'ers, is composed of W. G. (Bill) Justice, Gus Sakkis, and Roberts Brown.

Coach Bill Justice whose coaching prowess has led the Tornados through two consecutive undefeated seasons, is also coach of baseball. This popular mentor, who hails from Ashville, North Carolina, is, however, a product of a southern school, being an outstanding athlete from Rollins College.

Coach Justice's very able assistant, Coach Gus Sakkis, is a very popular newcomer to C. H. S. and Clearwater. Although he was born in Warsaw, New York, he'd like it made clear that he is not a northerner, having lived most of his life in the south where he attended Rollins College, gaining prominence in football. Before coming to Clearwater, he coached at Plant High in Tampa.

This able coaching staff is completed by our own Coach Roberts Brown, a product of Tampa University, known to all who love him as "Robbie".

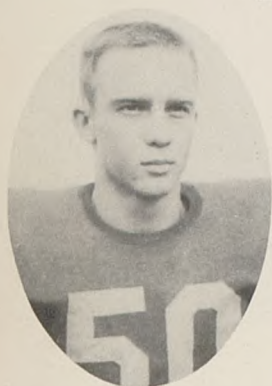

Serving as head coach in Basketball and B Squad coach in football, this local boy shows his stuff by helping lead the Tornados through another season.

B-squad Football is the training ground for the Tornado Varsity team. Last year Danny McMullen and David Abner were outstanding in their running and blocking ability. The team played only five games, namely: Tarpon Springs, two games; Plant High, two games; and Jefferson High, one game. Although the boys did not compile an impressive record, winning none of their games and tying one of the Tarpon games, they gave their all and we know they will be a great asset to the varsity next year.

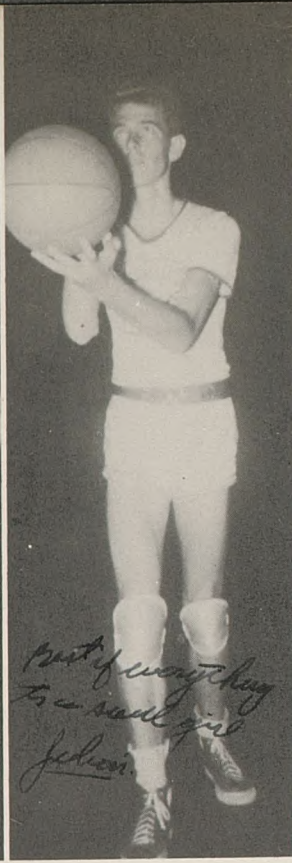

Coach Brown coaches these boys. The co-captains were David Abner and Ned Spake, who were greatly aided by other outstanding players such as Glenn Baker, William Ray, and Joe Turner.

BASEBALL

The C.H.S. Baseball Team started off their 1950 season on March 28 for the first of eighteen games. On April 21st and 22nd, they participated in a tournament held in Bartow. The newcomers to the team were greatly aided by the lettermen from last year John Logan, Jack Mackie, and Willis Whitehurst.

Coach Justice, who led the football team through an undefeated season, is the able mentor who trains these boys.

Here's to our enthusiastic boys who step up behind the plate to take honors and add more glory to C.H.S.'s athletic record!

Co-Captains Willie Whitehurst and Jack Mackie

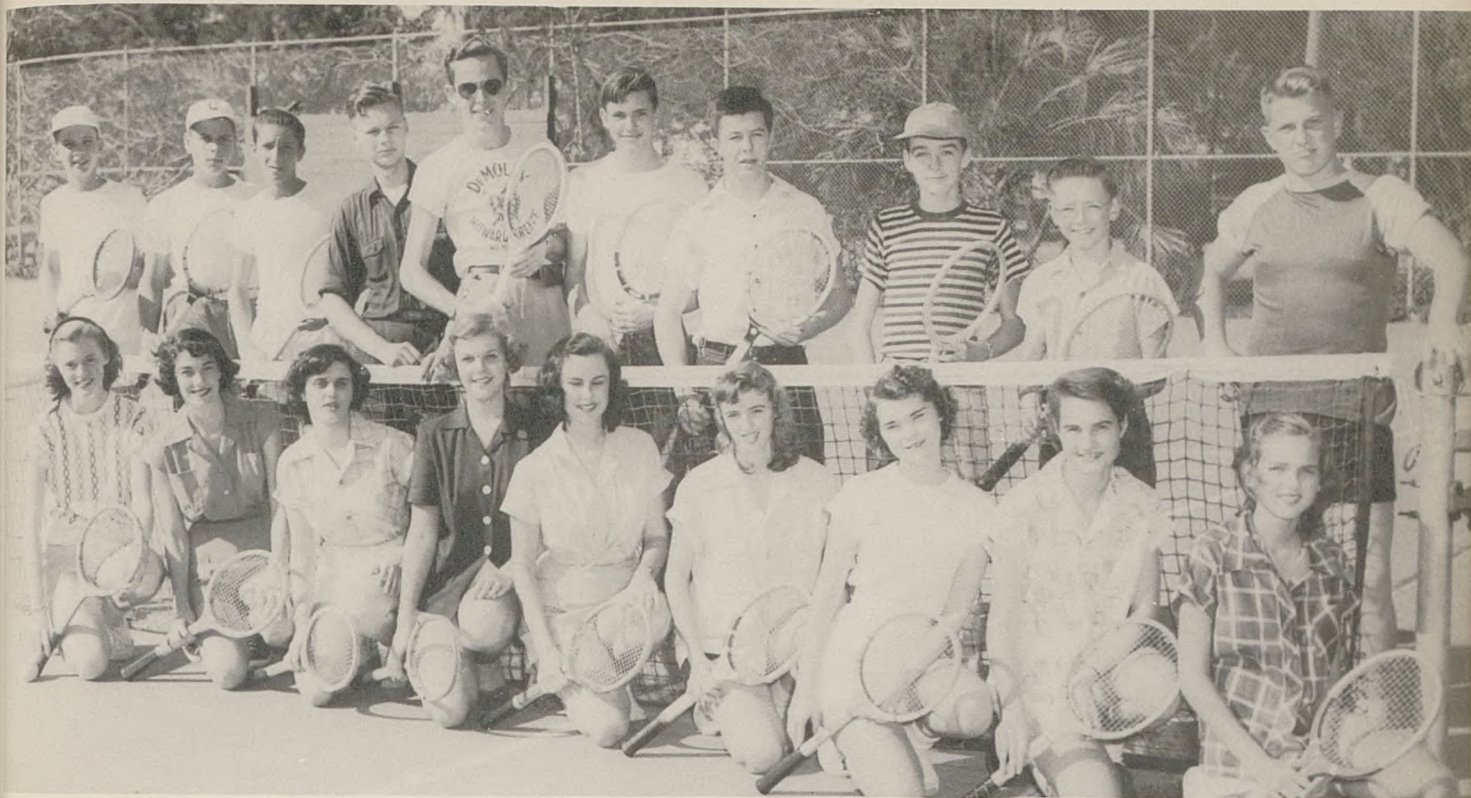

Co-captains of track: Bill Blackburn and Phil Bayly

The C.H.S. track team started off its 1950 season on March 8, with an afternoon meet with Tarpon Springs. They engaged in ten meets before the season was over. The boys take part in such events as: the 100, 220, and 440 yard dashes, the half-mile and mile distance runs, the mile sprint medley with low and high hurdles, discus, javelin, and shot-put throws, broad jump, high jump, and pole vault. Edwards, Blackburn, Middleton, Spake, and Richardson are some of the able participants.

The home meets were held in the afternoons, while the larger meets were held in the evenings with the preliminaries being in the afternoon.

McLean, H. Ficht, A. Petree, B. Mayers, D. Mayers, H. McLean, J. Lupo, C. Stuler, L. Donaldson, J. Simmons, M. Watkins.

We couldn't have gotten along without 'em!

A proud moment for the Tornados!

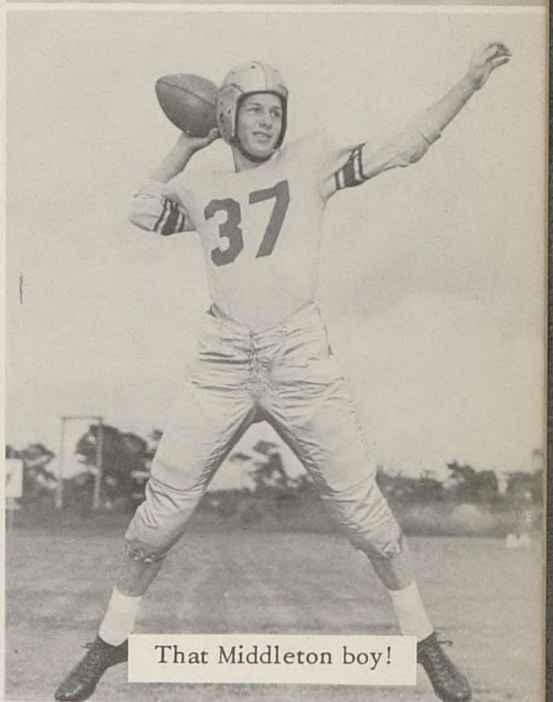

Guess what! --- We won again!

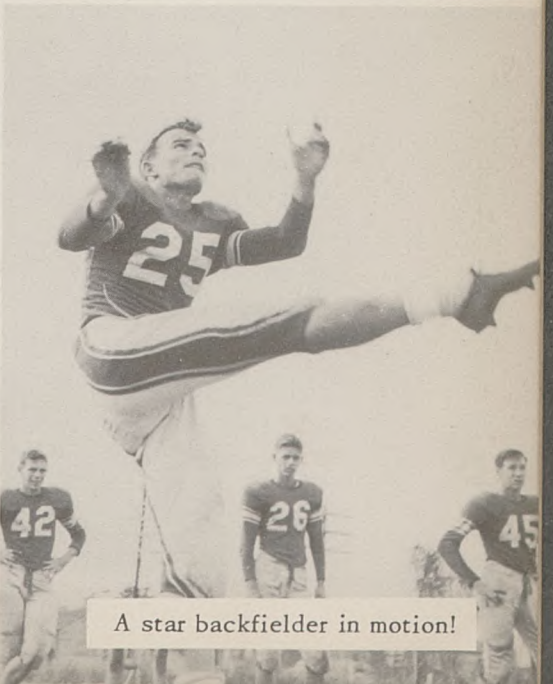

Look at that grin--er--both grins!

HORRORS!

we cried, when we received a frantic notice from our publishers 24 hours before press time! The notice informed us that we were the proud parents of four blank pages! Although the publishers stated that these pages were the best looking ones in the whole annual, we felt that we shouldn't waste the opportunity to louse them up. SO WE DID, as anyone can plainly see below . . .

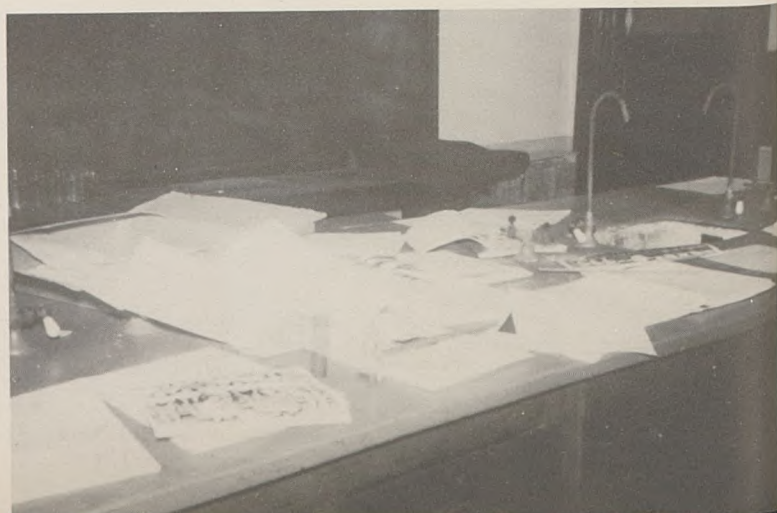

But it wasn't easy. We needed time, which we didn't have any of . . . First we broke a date with gorgeous Joan Turnburke (shown at right to give you an idea of the sacrifice we made)!

Then we had to find something to "louse" with . . . We anxiously searched the halls of ol' C.H.S. and found nothing . . . as can be noted below. (Of course, we did run into a couple of mice, but they weren't what we were looking for!)

Frustrated, we sat down to brood a while. We feasted our eyes on the mess depicted below, and felt that we certainly should be able to find something in that muddle! But who has the energy to sort through it?

Well, no time to tarry! We dragged our weary bones around for a while longer and then came an absolutely dynamic idea! Why not go and look through some of the old files in the office . . .

... We dashed about some more and after looking through some of the old, old, old, old files and unearthed what you see below ... !!!

Would you ever recognize the lead in the Senior Class Play?

Our own little Shirley Temple from Canada !!!

Our big Basketball center loafing as usual with his little fishpole!

All he needs is a camera in his hands. Recognize him?

A little gal who likes to go fishing with the little fellow above!

All right, PeeWee, drop that gun! You aren't foolin' anyone!

Ye Old Editor, thinking out a deep problem!

That's him ... always got his arm around something! Recognize the great John L.?

Little Miss Cheerleader! Annabel!

..... And still some more of our 1950 graduates!

Would you ever believe that this is our romp 'em —stomp 'em eat 'em up football co-captain?

Grinnin' witha grin as big as when he sees little Susie!

Dance, Ballerina, Dance! Donald will clap for ya'.

Catch that Scotch plaid on a mighty cute little lass! A Cheerleader, too.

Then looking further, after we recovered from the shock of the above Rogue's Gallery, we came upon another spicy bit of knowledge also. We here pass it on to you.

| NAME | KNOWN FOR | ALWAYS SEEN WITH | WISH WE HAD | OUIJA BOARD SAYS |
|--------------|----------------------------|------------------|---------------------------------|---------------------------|
| A. Coachman | Silly laugh | a kleenex | her cute smile | still smilin' |
| E. Praschan | Shyness | Esther | his pretty hair | Boing! ! |
| P. Neff | Winning ways | Eddie | Her man! | Mrs. Edwards |
| B. Blackburn | football ability | a strange girl | his dimples | Ga. Tech |
| B. Riggle | her radio program | something to do | her red hair | Broadway |
| B. Gallups | Being a party boy | Freddy | his height | Lost weekends! |
| M. Nodine | dependability | All "A"'s | her musical talent | Carnegie Hall |
| J. Coon | losing her voice | a Ford | her peroxide bottle | Parties |
| J. Logan | way with women | a bored look | his car | Rip Van Winkle II |
| H. Fields | popularity | a worried look | his sense of humor | We want Elmer! |
| L. Tedrick | attending Basketball games | Guts | her cute actions | Nurse |
| J. Bobbitt | laziness | a "weed" | his unconcern | du-h-h-h |
| J. Drumm | pretty hair | sweet smile | her voice | Grand Opera |
| R. Durant | reckless driving | Carolyn | His nine lives | Hope he makes it! |
| P. Wolff | Packard convertible | Pete | her figure | Mrs. Strayer |
| P. Bayly | sarcasm | a model airplane | his car (?) | Good luck, Admiral! |
| H. Miller | crazy laugh | Byrd | her tiny waist | housewife |
| B. Allen | sniggy imitations | St. Pete paper | her cute legs | always Tinkle |
| G. Barnes | being lazy | a camera | some of the pictures he's taken | George Fulmer's assistant |
| W. Poston | athletic ability | somethin' to eat | her pigtailed | Swell gal! |
| J. Boyd | flaming hair | a new joke | her loud voice | A Dunedinite! |
| J. Oakley | his height | out a match | his bedmobile | Graduation |
| H. McLean | her energy | a cute smile | her cheering ability | Tuoro |

After chuckling over these tidbits and deciding that they weren't just what we needed, we were again plunged into thought. Another idea! We'd go and talk to our advisor, Miss "Kay". So we dashed off.

We tore over to her room to tell her the "good" news that four pages were blank! She was also horrified!

She had one suggestion, but after inspecting the long drop from the roof, we voted it down!

Time is running out! That dead-line is getting closer and closer. No time to lose. We again rushed across the campus and this time we encountered some human beings(?). We literally collided with Wes Wise! He really had something, but it wasn't what we wanted . . . not right then anyway!

We careened on in heaven-knows-what-direction and suddenly . . . OH, NO . . . it couldn't be . . . not in C.H.S.! Things like that just don't happen here! As you can see below, we encountered two people studying!!! And Nett of all people!

Rather down-hearted and dejected, we began to give up hope of accomplishing anything. It began to look like it was hopeless. We finally gave up the ghost and decided to leave the pages blank . . . (don't you wish we had!!).

In Pace Requiescat!!!

Lover,

Gad! What does one write to her best friend in a damn book like this?
(you don't know do you?)

Cookie, I don't think I've ever had any more fun in all my life than I have had in the last months since I've known you.

Remember all the good times we've had going to Tarpon. More fun! More fights! But don't we love it? Remember too the mean trick Wesley, you & I pulled on those sweet buddies of ours? I don't think I'll ever forget it. That poor Model-A looked a mess didn't it. They were so mad.
But it was fun.

also, all the nights I've spent with you & the hell we raised. I sure hope next year will be just as much fun.

I hope you have fun this summer.
But don't forget me down here. Good luck Cookie and I still love ya.

Let's go to Tarpon - OK? - ha!!

I want also to thank you for taking me to Tarpon in the 1st place.
Love ya "Jan"

Margie

Cornelia Grace Wilhelmeng~~ed~~ Marie,
Man, ain't we had the good times this year. You can't say we didn't have our share. And I know will have double next year what we had this year.
Won't it be swell being a high and mighty Senior. Boy will really lay it on thick. Especially during sophomore week.

Have a lot of fun this summer,
I'll miss you like the devil, you better drop me a line or ~~too~~ too.
I wish I was goin' with, hear.
Boy, kids, don't work too hard this summer, cuz if you do you'll be all worn out next fall, and if we get making the operetta we're gonna need a lot of strength.
Be good,

I love ya loads
Margie

"Stink"

Cookie, dear,

I don't know what to say to you. Cookie, there is so much to say to you but they all seem so silly. You never will forget our wonderful and sorrowful times together.

We sure have had our troubles, haven't we ??? You and Billy and me and Willis.

con't — May 21, 1951

Good luck "cookie". Don't forget state content and don't get too mad taking care of those robes next year. May you always have all the success life has to offer. You deserve it.

Your friend,

Deermann

I'll finish in next year.

Love ya,

Sheila

too much cane or it ---
See ya next year
